Attend Project STAY

Are you experiencing academic difficulty? Would you like to improve upon your record of academic and student success? Confused about probation/suspension criteria? Unsure of appeal processes? Thinking about not returning to school?

This is a technical support group for students who are feeling stressed by external factors currently impinging upon their academic student status. Support from peers and support staff will be provided through a series of sessions offering positive alternatives to help ease circumstantial pressure and increase student retention capabilities. Methods in increasing student effectiveness for academic success will be emphasized. Facts and realities concerning academic probation and suspension will also be discussed.

LEARN ABOUT:

- Criteria of academic probation/suspension/dismissal
- Pitfalls of poor grades
- Appeals processes for financial aid probation and suspension
- Importance and value of higher education
- Strategies to increase academic and student success
- And much more!
