Hathaway can be used for the equivalent of four full time semesters at any Wyoming community college and four semesters at UW. Provisional Opportunity students must earn a certificate or degree before transferring the scholarship to UW. Students may transfer their Hathaway at any time between semesters during the eligibility window. Please notify the Financial Aid Office at both Schools to transfer the scholarship. The student's eligibility status, including GPA, hours completed, and payment received, will be included on the Hathaway transfer transcript. Students must be admitted as a degree seeking student to receive any financial aid. If taking courses from two institutions, the student must choose which institution will fund his or her Hathaway award. Funding can only be received from one institution. A consortium agreement is required for dually enrolled students.
