

“C.N.A. Expectations” 2010-2011

To become a Certified Nursing Assistant it takes several components to be successful in your career:

- Flexibility
 - Varied Schedule: Afternoons, Nights, Weekends and lots of Overtime
 - Salary starts $8.65-$11/Hr based on schedule
 - Excellent Benefit Package
- Physical Care of Patients
 - Clean all body parts (including bowel movements)
 - Feeding
 - Bathing (showers & baths)
 - Personal hygiene (brush hair & teeth)
 - Movement of Patients
 - Demands to stand on your feet in 8 hour shifts
- Mental Care of Patients
 - Compassion
 - Patience
- Asses Patient’s Well Being
 - Vital signs
 - Knowing if something is not right
 - Awareness: Things can change drastically minute to minute
- Background Check
 - Prereq for class: Pass Wyoming DFS Background Check
 - Prereq for certification: Pass Healthcare Integrity Protection Data Bank (HIPDB) Background check
 - Extensive Background Check by future employer

*All ETSS Participants who do not drop the C.N.A. class by the drop date and do not complete the course will be responsible for the bill.

Last Day to drop the C.N.A. class is last day of the first week. No exceptions.